Apply for Open Positions on Monterey's Boards, Commissions, and Committees

Monterey, CA. – Get involved and impact your community! The City of Monterey is accepting applications from Monterey residents for volunteer positions on the following boards, committees, and commissions:

- Planning Commission – NEW VACANCY!
- Disabled Access Appeals Board – Two members
- Board of Library Trustees – One member
- Neighborhood and Community Improvement Program (NCIP) Committee – Alternates for the following neighborhoods: Aguajito Oaks, Alta Mesa, and Deer Flats

Applications will be received on an ongoing basis until vacancies are filled, with first review given to applications received by end-of-day Friday, September 2, 2022.

Residents of the City of Monterey are encouraged to apply for these volunteer positions. Descriptions and requirements are noted on the application, available online at <http://bit.ly/bcc-app-docusign> (for submitting online) or <https://bit.ly/bcc-app-2021-2022> (PDF for printing). Mayor Clyde Roberson will review each application and conduct interviews of the candidates prior to presenting his recommendations to the City Council for appointment.
